THE SELLER KIT

Sell it to the owners you know. Keep 25% of every payment.

You show an owner who in their town asked for them this week. We do everything after that: setup, the agent, support, billing. You get a quarter of every payment their store makes, straight to your bank twice a month, for as long as they stay.

What you earn

SOLO

$74.25

to you every month a Solo store pays its $297

TEAM

$124.25

to you every month a Team store pays its $497

DEALER

$199.25

to you every month a Dealer store pays its $797

You earn 25% of each payment a store you brought in makes, before tax.

Payday is the 1st and the 15th of every month, straight to your bank through Stripe.

Each payday covers payments that cleared at least 7 days before it, so a refund or dispute never has to be taken back.

A month the store did not pay earns nothing. When a store cancels, its commission stops.

Run the scan with an owner

STEP 1

Ask two things

What do you do, and what town are you in? Write their words down the way they say them: "roofing", "dog grooming", "used side-by-sides".

STEP 2

Run the scan together

Open your scan link on your phone and type both in. In about half a minute you both see real public posts from people near them asking for it, names taken out, dated.

STEP 3

Let the posts do the talking

Read one out loud. Then say the one line: our agent would have answered every one of these in your voice. Stop there and let them ask.

STEP 4

Sign them up from your portal

Open "Sign someone up" in your portal, paste their website, pick the plan, and hand them the phone or text them the link. They finish with their own email and pay. The store is yours from that moment.

What to say

Say it your way. Keep the last line every time.

People in your town ask Facebook groups who to hire for what you do. Whoever answers first, and sounds like a real person, gets the job.

I sell a tool that makes that you. It is called the Social Selling Agent. It reads the local groups from your own account, comments under the posts asking for you, messages the people who want someone now, and keeps the conversation going in your voice. The leads land on your desk. You stop living on your phone at night.

Modern Mustard Seed runs it for you, end to end. Cancel any time.

Before you decide anything, let me show you the free scan: real posts from people near you asking for what you do, with the names taken out. Takes half a minute.

Full disclosure: I earn a commission if you sign up.

The two-line intro

Paste it in a text or a message. Your portal fills in your link.

I know a tool that finds the people in your town asking a group who to hire for what you do, and answers them in your voice. Want to see who asked for you this week? It is free: your scan link (I earn a commission if you sign up.)

Always say you are paid

The law asks anyone paid to recommend something to say so, plainly, every time. Every post, comment and message says you earn a commission if they sign up. Your own agent says it on every one it writes, and it cannot send one without it.

The three plans

Solo $297 a month

One salesperson, or an owner who sells.

One salesperson, from their own Facebook

One platform of your choice: Facebook, recommended and preselected, or one of X, TikTok, YouTube and Instagram

Marketplace, groups, the people asking, messages, posts and connections on Facebook, with your ads written for you

Every buyer answered in minutes, the visit booked, a calendar invite to your team

A weekly read on what Google and ChatGPT say about you

Your own set of custom GIFs, made for your business, that your agent uses in its replies

A morning summary and a nightly review that makes it better

The first post on every channel waits for your yes

Team $497 a month

A small floor or a crew, up to four people.

Up to four people, each from their own Facebook

Your two picks from X, TikTok, YouTube and Instagram, in the price

Every lead handed straight to your sales system: an ADF email to your dealer CRM, a signed webhook, or a spreadsheet

Any platform beyond what a plan carries, Reviews, or the Ads agent is $75 a month each. Cancel any time from the desk.

Your own agent, free

Once you are approved you get your own Social Selling Agent on your own socials, and we pay for it. It comes loaded: our films, ready-written posts and answers, and your scan link with your code in every one. It looks for owners asking how to get more customers and answers them in your voice. Every word waits for your yes before it goes, and every one says you earn a commission. Write your own posts beside ours any time.

How every sale is yours

Your link carries your code. Anyone who opens it and signs up within 90 days is your store.

A scan run from your link shows in your portal, with the owner's email when they leave it.

"Sign someone up" in your portal makes a link with the owner's website and plan already filled in.

Your portal shows every store you brought in, its plan and status, what you earn a month, your next payday and what it covers.

What else you can sell

Pick what you want to sell in your portal and your agent follows it. Each one gets its own link with your code.

Social Selling Agent

Finds the people near you asking for what you do, answers them in your voice, and hands you the leads.

25% of every payment, paid the 1st and 15th, until the store cancels

Websites

A website built to be the first answer in its town, managed end to end.
